Description:

Joe Hill's critically acclaimed, New York Times bestselling, Bram Stoker Award-winning debut chiller, Heart-Shaped Box, heralded the arrival of new royalty onto the dark fantasy scene. With Horns, he polishes his well-deserved crown. A twisted, terrifying new novel of psychological and supernatural suspense, Horns is a devilishly original triumph for the Ray Bradbury Fellowship recipient whose story collection, 20th Century Ghosts, was also honored with a Bram Stoker Award—and whose emotionally powerful and macabre work has been praised by the New York Times as, wild, mesmerizing, perversely witty... a Valentine from hell.

I think Joe Hill is a talented writer but there were too many inconsistencies in this book. Slight spoilers ahead---This guy has demonic powers and keeps getting his butt kicked?! Cmon thats as bad as superman vs batman. Even a lesser demon would have no problem with a mere mortal no matter how psychotic that person may be. The other reason I deducted a star was the setup of the book was all flashbacks which I dont mind but I thought he was going to try and figure out how he got the horns and with clues figure out what really happened to his girlfriend. Everything was solved through chance meetings and accidental physical contact. The concept for the novel was great the execution was good not great. I think this would have been better written as a short story or novella. I will continue reading his novels but for anyone expecting Stephen King quality he isnt there...yet.
